

IPAK adds to sales team.

Pennsauken, NJ (March 29, 2010) – IPAK is proud to announce the hire of its new Account Executive, Phil Lebresco.

Prior to joining IPAK, Phil served a long tenure as National Account Manager for HMP Communications, a comprehensive information and education service targeting healthcare professionals.

“He understands the healthcare and publishing industry on multiple levels, says Tim Hilley, VP of Sales. We are thrilled to have him join our team.”

Phil holds a bachelor's degree in marketing from Clemson University.

IPAK, Inc is a domestic certified woman-owned business that provides custom innovative print solutions and on-site manufacturing for the healthcare, education and promotion industries. As marketers that manufacture, IPAK couples their ability to think strategically with their thorough understanding and control of structural package design and the print manufacturing process to become a valuable extension of brand, managed markets, sales and ad agency teams. Over 100 employees work at their 70,000 square foot facility in Pennsauken, NJ. IPAK’s client base is national and includes Endo Pharmaceuticals, Grey Healthcare and McGraw-Hill Companies.

To learn more, go to www.ipak.com.